Do you want us to return old parts (Additional shipping may apply): Yes No

- You are welcome to remove you stock prior to sending your rifle to us. This will make it easier to ship the barreled action to us as you do not have to declare it as a complete firearm. This will also reduce the size, weight, and cost of your shipping. We will ship your finished rifle back to you in an appropriate case and box.
- If shipping is difficult in your area, please see our Return Service Details at the following link
